

Did you know? Marvin Stone, of Washington, DC, invented the common drinking straw. He received a US patent for his invention of the paraffin-covered paper straw, on January 3, 1888. It replaced the natural rye straws, used up until that time.